The study shows that Gorkha and Dadhing districts are lagging far behind in building houses in comparison to Dolakha and Sindhupalchowk districts.

There are four main reasons for not initiating reconstruction of houses:
1) amount spent in other purposes 2) insufficient amount 3) lack of suitable land 4) lack of building materials

The old aged (16.66%) are still not provided with first installment in Dhading, Dolakha and Sindhupalchowk districts. Similarly, only 15% of single women are not provided with first installment in those districts. Whereas, Gorkha has provided to 100% needy from old age and single women category.

The reasons for not receiving first installment include: 1) names not enlisted in bank list 2) Land registration certificate owner is not available in village, many are abroad for the employment 3) name not issued by VDC.

Single women in some of the districts have not started building houses. Single women and old aged people need more support to have their houses constructed from community, neighbors, governments etc.

Despite getting the first installment people in Gorkha and Dhading are lagging far behind in completing their houses in comparison to other districts.
In the case of Gorkha district, no single woman has completed building house whereas in Dadhing only 6% of old aged people have completed their house. It is found that the entire households who have completed their houses have taken technical assistance from engineer and also have elderly friendly houses.

The topmost obstacles explained by the respondents while building their houses are as follows: 1) Lack of wood and other materials. 2) High price of building materials.

The figures depict that single women in Gorkha, Dolakha and sindupalchowk are lagging far behind in getting technical support from engineer. The figures show that single women are among the least aware of second installment.

The topmost obstacles explained by the respondents while building their houses are as follows: 1) Lack of wood and other materials. 2) High price of building materials.

In Gorkha and Dolakha districts Janagati are far behind getting the second installment. However, Sindhupalchowk has not initiated yet the process of getting second installment and very few people in Dhanding are applying.

The diagrams reflect the worst condition. No single woman has received the second installment in Gorkha district. Similarly nil older people and single woman has received second installment in Sindhupalchowk district.

The main reason for this is not having the access to information.

Note: This report contains the data of the 500 respondents from four districts namely Gorkha (Borlang), Dhading (Khari), Dolakha (Khopachang, Chilanka, Larminda and Lapilang) and Sindhupalchowk (Tekenpur and Attapur). The sample size of the data collection is 500; 200 from Dolakha district and 100 each from other 3 districts.
